

Celebrate the Clay Series, three historical novels spanning 800 years and uniting three strong women through a clay pot found at Romero Ruin north of Tucson. Join the author for a book talk and walking tour of this remarkable place.

Enjoy the beauty of Catalina State Park, light picnic fare, and a walking tour of the Romero Interpretive Trail. Get up close and personal with Anna, Esperanza, and Ha-wani, their lives, their struggles, and how they are connected across the centuries in a little scrap of desert beneath the rugged towers of Pusch Ridge in the Santa Catalina Mountains.

Sunday, January 20, 2019, 1:30 pm
